

ETEXT ATTACHMENT

[BeginText]

07/15/2005 15 : 36

July 15, 2005

Reports Analysis Division
Attn: Chris Jones
Federal Election Commission
999 E Street, NW
Washington, DC 20463

RE: Forgiveness of Personal Loans and Debts

Dear Mr. Jones:

Under separate cover, please find a letter from Capri Cafaro confirming and itemizing the forgiveness of certain personal loans she made to the Committee and certain debts owed to her by the Committee.

In the July Quarterly Report for 2005, the personal loans and debts forgiven have been negatively accrued to accurately reach the $250,000 threshold for the 2004 Primary and the $250,000 threshold for the 2004 General. As of 6/30/05, all of the forgiven loans and debts are treated as contributions from the Candidate to the Committee.

Below is an outline of the loans and debts remaining on the FEC report:

Primary 2004:

Date	Amount	Purpose
1/14/2004	$12,000	Loan
2/1/2004	$6,500	Loan (original amount was $25,000 with a repayment of $18,500 on 7/24/04)
2/19/2004	$75,000	Loan
2/24/2004	$40,000	Loan
3/1/2004	$41,020	Loan
2/12/2004	$30	Dues
2/12/2004	$100	Donation
2/12/2004	$200	Event Tickets
2/12/2004	$7,500	Media Consulting
2/13/2004	$24,328.02	Direct Mail Services
2/13/2004	$24,821.98	Media Buys (portion of $84,846 adv.)

Total loans and debts remaining for Primary 2004: $231,500.

For the General 2004:

3/9/2004	$1,000	Loan
4/7/2004	$5,200	Loan
4/27/2004	$25,000	Loan
5/14/2004	$2,000	Loan
6/30/04	$216,800	Loan (portion of $260,000 Loan)

Total loans remaining for 2004 General: $250,000